FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

January 26, 2010

Judge G. Glenn Camerer Granted Retirement February 1, 2010

An application from the Honorable G. Glenn Camerer, County Judge for the Twelfth County Court Judicial District, for disability retirement has been granted and will become effective February 1, 2010.

Camerer, who will turn 65 this May, is widely credited with starting problem-solving courts in Scotts Bluff County including juvenile, adult, and a family drug courts. Camerer has, for several years, worked closely with the Nebraska Public Employees Retirement System on judicial retirement issues. At the time of his retirement he was as active member of the Nebraska Supreme Court Committee on Problem-Solving Courts and on the Supreme Court Commission on Children in the Courts. He was also on the Legislative Committee for the Nebraska County Judges Association and has served in all officer positions for the organization.

Camerer has been serving the citizens of Nebraska since January 4, 1973 when he began his judicial career on the Scotts Bluff County Court bench.
